

KIM NEWMAN

Kim Newman hails from England and is a journalist, film critic and writer of fiction. After viewing a version of Dracula at the tender age of eleven, his fragile little mind was warped into that which produces award winning writing. He has been the recipient of the Bram Stoker Award, the International Horror Guild Award and the BSFA Award.

Set in an alternate history of the nineteenth century, it is 1888 and Queen Victoria has taken the Wallachian prince, Vlad Tepes as her consort, leading to a reign of terror.

In Whitechapel, Silver Knife, dubbed by some as Jack The Ripper, prowls the streets delivering the final death to freshly turned vampire girls.

The murders threaten the new regime. Agent of the crown, Charles Beauregard is called upon to track down the killer and is assisted by the elder vampire Genevieve Dieudonne.

Anno Dracula has been the recipient of The Dracula Society's Children of the Night Award, The Fiction Award of the Lord Ruthaven Assembly, The International Horror Critics' Guild Award and Prix Ozone.
